HEART PUNCH KILLS FIGHTER

Stephen McDonald Killed in His First Professional Bout.

POLICE HOLD OPPONENT

Father, Who Forbade McDonald to Enter Bout, Sees His Son Killed.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Stephen McDonald, 22 years old, was killed here last night in the second minute of the first round of his first professional prize fight when Toddy Hicks landed a hard blow with his right hand under McDonald's heart.

Hicks, his seconds, Claude Tibbets, referee; O. H. Stacey and E. K. Goldman, promoters of the bout and the matchmakers, were held by the police on charges of second degree manslaughter. All of them furnished bond for their appearance before the coroner.

In the second minute of fighting Hicks drove his right with his full weight behind it to McDonald's body. For a few seconds McDonald continued to spar and then staggered against the ropes and slumped to the floor. He was carried from the ring by his second but died without regaining consciousness. McDonald's father was at the ringside when the boxer was killed. The youth had gone on the program against the wish of his parents, who had forbidden him to take part in the match.

MRS. OLIVER'S WILL.

The will of the late Mrs. Alice J. Oliver was probated in county court yesterday. Her husband, W. C. Oliver, is named as executor and is directed to convert all her personal property into cash, making the following bequests:

To her niece, Jessie Fautleroy, of Galesville, Texas, $500.

Mrs. Willie McRae, for faithful services, $100.

To her nephew, Coleman Allensworth, amount of indebtedness and $200 additional.

The remainder is devised to her husband, including furniture and household effects. The farm of 60 acres, near Pembroke, goes to her husband during his life. At his death the land is to be sold and the proceeds divided, as follows:

To her brother, N. K. Allensworth, of Elkhart, Ala., $800, to be placed in trust for his use and benefit.

To Jessie Fautleroy, $1,500, to her niece, Mrs. Sue Montgomery, of Providence, Ky., $500; to her great-niece, Inez Allensworth, $500; to her niece, Bessie Grimes, $200; to her sister, Lucy Allensworth, $200; to her nephew, Garth Allensworth, $100; to her great-niece, Jessie Mary Bartlett, $500. A small bequest was also made to each of her half brothers, John F., Jas. B., Robert and Phillip Allensworth, also to her nephew, Wilbur Allensworth. The balance of the real estate goes to the six children of her nephew, S. K. Allensworth. The instrument bears date of Feb. 23, 1912.

WOMAN FAVORS RACE SUICIDE

Mrs. Sanger Wants to Know Why She Can't Oppose T. R.'s Doctrine.

New York, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Margaret Sanger, leading birth control advocate, expressed no triumph over the temporary defeat of efforts to punish her for circulating her doctrines. Mrs. Sanger insisted that she was mentally prepared to go to prison in support of her belief and share "martyrdom" with her sister, Mrs. Ethel Byrne, who is conducting a so-called hunger strike.

A big mass meeting here expressed sympathy for the cause of birth control and condemned the action of the authorities in prosecuting Mrs. Sanger and Mrs. Byrne.

Resolutions were adopted calling for the repeal of the law, which operates against the dissemination of birth control literature and advice.

"Why is it that Mr. Roosevelt can go from end to end of the land telling the people to have large families, while I cannot tell them how not to have them?" Mrs. Sanger asked. "Last year 300,000 babies in the United States died of poverty and want because 800,000 parents were kept in ignorance. The statement that birth control leads to immorality is a cloak to hide the effort to keep women in bondage. I ask you is woman ever to remain a child-bearing machine?"

The February Woman's Home Companion.

Sinclair Lewis, the well-known novelist, begins a delightful novel called "The Innocents" in this issue. Another generous installment next month will complete it. Sophie Kerr finishes "Love of Woman" in this issue. "On Washington-Lincoln's Birthday," "Little Rosamund" and "The magic of Dreams" are some of the other short stories.

"The Tuneful American" is an entertaining article about music in America by Albert Spalding, the violinist; and "Getting Acquainted With Yourself," by Arnold Bennett, and "The Girls Who Wanted to Marry Me," are two other interesting articles. "Succeeding in New Ways," gives some information about making money.

"The Eyes Have It," is an alluring display of beautiful moving picture actresses, and the fashions, cooking, and other regular departments are all filled with entertaining and valuable information.

Fisk Denies Flatly.

Pliny Fisk, a New York banker, named by Thomas W. Lawson as the banker in the mysterious "Cabinet member-Senator-banker" investment trio, denied at the "leak" inquiry Monday that he ever had been interested with Secretary McAdoo or a "Senator" in any joint stock account. Fisk was brought into the inquiry by Thomas W. Lawson declaring at the hearings in Washington that Archibald White told him Fisk had boasted to him that he controlled Secretary McAdoo and had offered, late one night, to summon McAdoo from his bed by telephone. Lawson also said he had heard Fisk was connected with the peace note "leak."

Corn $5.07 1-2c a Bushel.

For the first time since the civil war more than $1 a bushel has been paid for corn in Evansville.

Saturday, Wm. Bahm, a veteran grain buyer, purchased 11,000 bushels from Thomas Lenn and George Wathen, Knight township growers, at $1.01½. The corn is to be shelled and delivered on cars at Evansville before Mar. 1.—Courier.

"Kie-Yie-Yie! Get Me 'Gets-It' Quick!"

2 Drops Make Corn "Fall" Off!

"I've joined the Never-Again Club. Never again will I use anything for corns but 'Gets-It'. Put 2 drops of 'Gets-It' on, and from that second the corn begins to shrivel."

"Oh, Don't Touch It! It's So Sore!"

Use "Gets-It" and It Will Never Be Sore!
Instead of swelling up like a little white sponge. Then it loosens from your toe—and, glory hallelujah! the corn comes off as though you'd take a glove off your hand!
Yes, "Gets-It" is the corn discovery of the age. More "Gets-It" is sold by many times than any other corn remedy in existence. Try it and you'll know the reason why. It takes two seconds to apply it, and it dries at once. That's all. Don't experiment—follow the experience of millions and use "Gets-It."
"Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Hopkinsville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by L. L. ELGIN.

Fort Bliss Blues

- Two years in Fort Bliss boys, Ain't no great long time If I was only in Hop Town, I could put up ninety-nine.
- The last time I saw my girlie, In old Hop Town, I kissed her good bye cause, I was Mexico bound.

Chorus

For I love my girl, Like a school boy loves his pie, Like Col. Henry Loves his mint and rye.

- And when I kissed her, boys, I could see the tears, Uncle Sam is going to keep my Boy three years.
- Then we walked around on The big platform, I kissed her again cause, I knew I was long gone.

Chorus

We got on the train boys, And I waved good bye, I could see her turn her Sweet head and cry.

- We got to Fort Thomas boys, We thought we would soon go home, But the orders came for Mexico to roam.

Chorus

And we want to go home, We want to go so bad, Such a darned old feeling boys, I never had.

- For a week we rode boys, Both day and night, Till we reached the place where We were supposed to fight.
- And they called us moonshiners boys, Which we may be, But we've got the record on the Border, From A to Z.

Chorus

We took the record on the hike boys, It was a long old road, And we had to carry Our pack mule load.

- Then they kept us here 'till, The weather got cold, Then they sent us out on Border patrol.
- Chorus And the Mexicans thought they Would have some fun, But they ran into a Big machine gun.
- And when we fired upon them boys, They ran the other way, Cause the old moonshiners, Don't mean to play.

Chorus

Now our business needs us, And our people too, And there's nothing here that We can do.

- And when we get a letter From our old boss man, He says if you don't hurry and come back, I'll get another hand.

February 15th

In a previous advertisement, we announcement that until Jan. 31st, we would give FREE with every MAJESTIC RANGE a $12.00 set of cooking utensils.

In view of the fact that during January we had some very bad weather and a great many of our country friends could not avail themselves of this exceptional opportunity and at the earnest solicitation of some of our friends, we have decided to extend the time until

FEBRUARY 15th, 1917

You are aware of the fact that while we have been handling MAJESTIC RANGES for a great many years, yet there has never been a cut sale on them. One price to every one is the motto of the MAJESTIC manufacturers. You get the range at the old price—positively not one cent more does it cost you—and we simply make you a present of a $12.00 Set of Cooking Utensils.

You cannot afford to pass it by. REMEMBER we will positively withdraw this offer on February 15th, 1917.
